ENFORCED PROHIBITION

RAILROADS REMOVE THE GREAT SOURCE OF DANGER BY IRONCLAD RULE

In the ordinary channels of travel where steam is an agent used in propulsion, human life is menaced at every step. The inanimate elements of wheels, tires, axles, brakes, rails, roadbed, any of these may fail at any point, and at any time, with imminent danger to life and limb. Danger from these sources cannot always be forecasted or avoided when the animate or intelligent forces join these, as is done when the human mind, hand and eye assumes control and tells the inanimate to move. A flaw in a flange, a wheel or tire or rail might readily render nugatory the highest type of the animate, but how immensely is danger and risk increased by flaws and weak places in the intelligent part of the dual combination necessary to control the agency of steam in moving vessels and cars.

In hiring a livery team, the prudent man asks in regard to the habits of the horses and the fidelity of the driver. He will even exercise a little caution with the cable and horse cars; but with absolute abandon he strides into a train or on a steamer without a thought or care as to guarantee of safety, trusting his life in the hands of entire strangers of whose capacity, from switchman to superintendent, he is positively ignorant.

In this abandon the traveling public pays a very high compliment to the expected intelligence and capacity of the human end of a boat or train, and it is worthy of remark that for the most part this public confidence is not misplaced. But the safety of a train lies away back of the few men controlling it when under way. It takes in the skilled mechanics who take the wood and the iron and construct that marvel of elegance and strength, the modern railway coach. Imperfect material or careless work at any point would increase the risk, but putting all the preliminary work at its best, it would be no special guarantee as against the intelligence necessary to safely run a well-equipped railroad train.

Considering the number of passengers handled by the railroads in this country, the per cent of injured or killed is less than proportionate numbers who travel by horseback, carriage, walk or stay at home, and in no other business known to the public is equal care observed to secure the safety of the people they handle. Realizing that the use of liquors among their employees would demoralize them and increase the risk to passengers, the railway managers have enforced absolute prohibition on all their passenger employees and on engineers of all classes. In this way managers have done more to promote and enforce practical prohibition than all the political orators at work on that line. To touch a drop of liquor is a guarantee of dismissal. It is knowledge of this rigid rule among the traveling public that gives them such confidence in the human management of a fast-flying train. The engineer's eye is clear, so is his brain, and his hand and nerves are steady. Some of the most horrible railway accidents of the past were closely allied to excessive use of liquor, but modern management has removed that source of danger by a positive rule that no employee dare disobey, and for this the public should be duly thankful.

Man's latest servant—electricity—so potent in its multiple uses—carries with it into minute detail of labor and management all the rigid rules enumerated above, and both steam and electric power officials now unite in a prohibitive rule against the use of cigarettes by all employees from the highest down to the messenger boys. The stupefying effect of this deadly narcotic excels in danger and debasement the use of alcoholic stimulants, and these prohibitive rules of business men, so closely touching the business world, gives practical emphasis to the claims of all classes who move against these "giant evils" on moral grounds.

NEWS FOR ALL

IS GLAD TO BOOST THE CAUSE THAT IS FOR THE GOOD OF ALL

The Evening News is not a one-sided affair. It is for everybody. There is no society or organization that has an iron grasp on the management of The News. This assertion is not made boastfully, but with a spirit of fairness. The Evening News is with the cause that will best promote the welfare of Glendale.

Drunkness, lying, swearing and stealing are not tolerated or upheld by The News. Exaggerated and sensational news accounts are barred as far as possible from the columns of this sheet. We always prefer to say something good instead of something bad about one of our citizens. There is evil enough in the world without parading it through the columns of a community newspaper.

The News has no use for the trouble-maker. Life is too short to stop by the way and knock chips off of our neighbors' shoulders.

Every citizen should have the right to a sensible opinion. The world is large and it would be strange if everyone would be of the same opinion. Be broad and independent enough to allow others the right of an opinion and at the same time quietly retain your own opinion.

Smile when we can and when we cannot, then get enjoyment by seeing others smile. Avoid the big I and the little you.

OUR DECLARATION

Is it right? Is it true? Or should it be revised? Certainly it should be both true and right. It is supposed to be a true statement of a right principle, as a foundation of just government.

Among other facts rightly stated, comes this: "To secure these rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. Is that true as a fact or principle? Is it not true that the evil, the criminal, the vicious never consent to the government?

Then besides, is it not true also that the majority, the women, have never consented to the government and do not now in any nation? If so, then our declaration states what is not true as a fact, and should be revised.

Then as a principle, there is a higher law back of the "consent of the governed." It is the law of God, who is "Lawgiver, Judge and Savior." Should not our declaration be revised and stated thus?

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," that to secure these rights governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the laws of God, found in nature and grace, to be applied to human affairs by the major consent of the loyal.

Then all the rest follows naturally, logically and truly. Certainly the disloyal, the criminal, the anarchists, never consent. We cannot submit the government to them. They always overturn the government and abrogate its laws.

Besides, the majority has not more right to do evil or wrong or vote for it than has any individual criminal. And if they do it, one or a nation, they are just as bad as is the criminal. "Count of heads and clack of tongues do not make right," and they cannot break it or change it.

REV. A. B. SMART.

EASY-DIVORCE PLAN SET BACK

The Nevada divorce law, requiring a year's residence in that state as a prerequisite to filing a divorce suit, having been upheld by unanimous opinion of the Nevada supreme court, the easy-divorce has been given another setback. There is now no state in the Union that shames itself by promoting divorce through notoriously lax laws. Public sentiment and the native decency of the American people and their respect for the family relation, will solve this divorce problem aright in time.

MASS MEETING AT BUTLER HALL

There will be a mass meeting at Butler's hall, Brand boulevard, this Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock to consider the question of better car service north of Broadway, Glendale. This meeting has been called by citizens who are property owners and have the best interests of Glendale at heart. You are invited.

CITY TRUSTEES HOLD FOUR HOUR SESSION

ORDINANCE CALLING BOND ELECTION ADOPTED—CITY ATTORNEY EVANS ADVISES AS TO RESPONSIBILITY OF SANITARY CONDITION OF VERDUGO CANYON STREAM—MUNICIPAL LEAGUE APPEARS BEFORE BOARD—MRS. E. L. PAYNE ASKS THAT TREE BE PROTECTED—G. H. HERALD APPOINTED MILK INSPECTOR—PROPOSITION OF AIDING MUNICIPAL BAND DISCUSSED

Monday evening's meeting of the board of trustees of the city of Glendale opened very quietly. Besides the city manager, T. W. Watson; president of the board, O. A. Lane, and Trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and Geo. Williams, City Attorney W. E. Evans, City Clerk J. C. Sherer, City Engineer Edw. Lynch, there were present four gentlemen representing lighting standards. A few minutes later Mrs. E. L. Payne and Mrs. Frank Grosvenor entered the trustees' room, they being members of a committee from the Tuesday Afternoon Club asking that a large tree on Central avenue be protected. Mrs. Payne read the resolution, which was kindly received by the board of trustees. The city manager was instructed to promptly protect the tree. The ladies thanked the board for the kind consideration they gave their request.

In the meantime, Mr. Blanchard, who had been selling milk in Glendale prior to July 1, but whose permit had been revoked on account of his not complying with the dairy ordinance, came before the board stating that he is about to establish a dairy at Burbank and he therefore made application to sell milk in Glendale. The application will be taken up for consideration next Monday evening.

At this juncture of the evening's proceedings a group of men entered the room. When asked by Chairman Lane if they wished to address the board, C. M. Guthrie of Sycamore avenue explained that the men who had just entered the room are members of the Glendale Municipal League and they had come there to talk about the reduction in railroad service north of Broadway.

Mr. Guthrie assured the board that it is the desire of the league to deal fairly with the trustees, but it has come to the ears of members of the league that the trustees concurred in the arranging of a new P. E. time table, which cut North Glendale's service in two. At this time Mr. Guthrie introduced Attorney Luther G. Brown, a member of the league, who after explaining concerning interviews a league committee had had with the Messrs Shoup, Pontius and McMillin of the P. E. Railroad Company, submitted the following letter just received from Paul Shoup, president of the Pacific Electric railway:

July 6, '14.

Luther Brown,
Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Sir: Referring to conversation this morning, it is planned with reference to Glendale service to split the trains at junction of Broadway and Brand boulevard, thus keeping the old service to the end of the line. The only exception to this will be that when there is only a one-car train, which is during a small part of the time, this car will cover the whole territory. It is unnecessary to go into details, especially as the plan as arranged might have to be modified slightly, though I believe this will entirely satisfy the North Glendale people.

Yours truly,
PAUL SHOUP.

Mr. Lane, chairman of the board of trustees, assured the members of the league that the city trustees have no jurisdiction over the matter of railroad questions, that being a question that is referred to the state railroad commission.

Mr. Guthrie then made the statement quite emphatic that it had come to the knowledge of the league that the trustees had assured the railroad officials that the new schedule would be satisfactory to the citizens of Glendale.

The trustees resented this intimation and Trustee Thompson declared himself as being absolutely opposed to the cutting out of any cars north of Broadway, and said he knew nothing about the proposed new schedule until he saw it posted in the car the morning of the day it went into effect.

Trustees Grist, Tower and Williams also said they knew nothing about the conditions of the new schedule until it went into effect.

Mr. Guthrie then inquired if Mr. Watson could say that he knew nothing about the new time table until it went into effect.

Mr. Watson stated that he as a member of the chamber of commerce railroad committee had favored and asked for car service on Broadway to Glendale avenue, but he knew nothing of the intentions of the railroad company to reduce the number of trains north of Broadway. Mr. Watson said he had put in five or six years of hard work for the city and he does not wish to be considered as being disloyal to any section of the city's interests, and it would be his desire that North Glendale be given full service.

Mr. Guthrie said that Mr. Shoup's promise to the league as set forth in his letter to Mr. Brown is satisfactory to members of the league for the present, and no further action will be taken until it is necessary.

After members of the league retired from the room, Trustee Tower presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it appears to the board of trustees there is great dissatisfaction on the part of the people residing north of Broadway and in the northwest portion of the city by reason of the reduction of the car service since the introduction of the service on Broadway to Glendale avenue, and

Whereas, certain citizens in said locality seem to be under the impression that this board had knowledge that said car service was to be reduced and had acquiesced in or consented thereto, and

Whereas, any imputation placing responsibility on the board of trustees for said reduced service is untrue and unjust to the board, now

Therefore, the board hereby publicly repudiates any such imputation and expresses its willingness to cooperate with the citizens of said section in acquiring an adequate car service for said section.

The question of the city attorney's duties and salary were taken up for further consideration. At a previous meeting it was suggested that the salary be $85 per month and that he be paid additional for certain special services. Trustee Thompson said he does not approve of commissions and specials to make up a salary, and therefore made a motion that the city attorney's salary be fixed at $100 per month. The motion received the unanimous support of the board.

As was stated in proceedings of a previous meeting, Milk Inspector Ravenscroft had resigned, and on motion G. H. Herald, city marshal, was appointed inspector.

On request of Trustee Grist, the city manager and other officials are requested to inquire into the condition of certain cow corrals on Howard street between Second and Third streets.

City Engineer Lynch was instructed to prepare specifications, etc., for a sewer system in Verdugo canyon district.

The city engineer submitted a communication concerning the improvement of Sycamore canyon wash, in which he recommended an open or a closed ditch, the latter being more slightly in appearance. He stated that the engineering skill required was not so great, but what is required is that property owners agree on a common plan.

The ordinance calling a bond election for the purpose of raising money with which to purchase the various plants of the water companies was read. The ordinance will be officially published in tomorrow's issue of the Evening News.

An ordinance pertaining to baggage and truck men being required to take out permits and observe certain rules before transporting baggage was taken up for a first reading. On motion, the ordinance was laid on the table until next Monday. Board adjourned.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Evelyn Meeker celebrated her fifth birthday last week and in honor of the occasion her mother, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, entertained a number of Evelyn's playmates in the family home, 300 East Colorado boulevard.

The color motif was yellow and white, Shasta daisies and many of them having been used about the house and in the center of the table, upon which yellow satin ribbon runners and a beautiful yellow candied cake played an important part in the decorative feature. Tiny favors and hand adorned cards in harmonious shades of yellow were also introduced and marked covers for six.

The entire afternoon was devoted to pleasure, both indoor and outdoor games having been played.

TROPICO NOTES

CLUB LADIES SEARCH THE DIM PAST FOR IDEAS FOR FRENCH FETE

To the many inquiries relative to the French Fete to be given by the lyric section of the Tropico Thursday Afternoon Club, Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper, musical director of the lyric section, has explained that the fete to be given Thursday evening at the residence of Col. and Mrs. Tom C. Thornton was suggested by the French Fete that originated with Marie Antoinette of France. In the summer of 1774 Marie Antoinette, becoming weary of the court formalities, decided to introduce a novel entertainment, and taking her court and court attaches with her, they went to Trianon, France, near Versailles and there spent several weeks in the thorough enjoyment of an unique entertainment. The twenty-four ladies who comprise the lyric section will all appear in costumes of the 1774 season. Powdered wigs will adorn the heads of each member. Miss Cooper, director, and Mrs. Helen DeGaston, accompanist, will wear becoming gowns of old rose and powdered wigs. Following the musical program, the tennis court will provide ample space for dancing, and it is whispered that one number is a tango. While the committee having this delightful social event in charge, Mmes. Willis M. Kimball, Eustace B. Moore, E. J. Pruess and Misses Cooper and Lydia Payro, are far from copyists, still they are clever adepts in copying the French Fete of 1774, which they are presenting for the pleasure and enjoyment of all who attend the fete Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. E. Burke entertained at her guests over Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ransford and Miss Cornelia Ransford of Los Angeles.

Mrs. James R. Maxwell of West Park avenue spent Saturday on a motor trip to Santa Monica canyon as the guest of Mrs. A. F. Parshall and Miss Lenora Parshall.

Mrs. Myra C. K. Shuey, who leaves Wednesday for Eugene, Oregon, at which place she will pass the remainder of the summer as the guest of her daughter, entertained complimentary to Mrs. James L. Fishback and Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock at her home on Columbus avenue on Monday evening. The hours passed all too quickly at Five Hundred.

Mrs. James L. Fishback, who has been spending several days at Long Beach, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Percy J. Priaulx and daughters, Misses Marjorie and Alice Priaulx, of West Park avenue, left for Oak Park, a suburb of Chicago, where they will spend three months as the guests of Mrs. Priaulx's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hammond, accompanied by Mrs. Hammond's mother and aunt, Mrs. Martha Johnson and Mrs. Della Coffman, have returned from a pleasant sojourn at Redondo.

Miss Blanche Martin of Los Angeles is spending a few days as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Burke, of South Central avenue.

The Kensington Art Club will be entertained by Mrs. Jack Hammond at her home on Cypress street on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hammond will be assisted by Mrs. Abbie Haskell and Mrs. Elizabeth Spafford.

The Monday evening musicales given at the Cooper School of Music on West Sixth street are proving most delightful social events for a large circle of musical friends who assemble at the conservatory of music and enjoy many splendid musical programs presented by Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper and her pupils.

PROMINENT MINING MAN HERE

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Clark arrived in Glendale Monday from the Imperial valley to spend a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Luther G. Brown, at 128 North Louise street.

Mr. Clark is a prominent mining and real estate man, well known in California and adjoining states. He is now on his way to the Log Cabin mines at Minona Lake, which mines are owned by Mr. Clark and Mr. Brown. Mr. Clark has extensive gold field interests in Nevada, having promoted the famous Bull Frog mine. He has been in the Imperial valley looking after his own and Mr. Brown's ranch interests. Since January 1 he has sold over a quarter of a million dollars' worth of Imperial valley lands.

PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN

EVERY MERCHANT SHOULD READ THIS

Food for thought from Leslie's Weekly: "Advertising! The thoughtful man thinks ahead. The prudent man profits by his ability to forecast the future as well as to scrutinize the present. One of the most prominent advertisers in the country says he makes it a rule to increase his advertising appropriation whenever business slackens, and he doubles and trebles it in times of severe business depression. This is his logical conclusion: 'The new customers I get when times are hard I always keep when times are good. They come to me largely from those who lose them because they fail to continue their publicity campaigns. A business depression in this country never lasts long, and it is always seed time for me. The harvest follows when prosperity returns.' It is a wise man who knows his own business better than the other man does."

VISITOR COMPLIMENTED

Complimentary to Miss Helen Burton of Redlands, a very delightful dancing party was given the evening of July 3 in the popular little dancing pavilion at Verdugo park.

The hall was tastefully decorated in the national colors, with an introduction of Shasta daisies and fern to complete the very effective scene. A stringed orchestra furnished delightful music for the dancers, who were generously entertained during intermission by the well-known local Globe Quartet.

The especially embellished corner which sheltered the punch bowl proved a popular retreat throughout the evening. Miss Beatrice Cowles having presided over the crystal receptacle containing a delicious liquid refreshment.

Those who enjoyed the pleasant affair were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Finn of Los Angeles, who appeared as chaperones for the evening, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Stollard of Redlands, Mrs. E. H. Cowles, Miss Helen Burton, Miss Ruth Cowles, Miss Wanda Billington, Miss Beatrice Cowles, Mr. Albert Stoffel, Mr. Warren Cowles, Mr. S. McMullan, Mr. Ferdinand Rigall and Mr. Raymond Allon of Los Angeles.

INFORMAL SURPRISE

Arming themselves with neatly tied packages containing delicious delicacies for luncheon, twelve friends of Mrs. Claude O. Pulliam hid themselves Monday into her home, 148 South Kenwood street, and as the song of the clock sounded noon, burst in upon her quiet retreat and announced they had come to remind Mrs. Pulliam of the fact that July 6 was her birthday.

One by one the boxes were unpacked and when the last crumb had been consumed, card tables were dragged forth and the afternoon was spent in Auction Bridge, the honored surprise taking a hand, and not the least bit sorry she was just one year older.

BROTHERHOOD BANQUET

The Brotherhood of the West Glendale Methodist church will serve a dinner to men only at 6:45 o'clock this evening. The invitation is general. A hearty welcome will be given to strangers. Brother C. L. Cleveland of Los Angeles will deliver an address at eight o'clock, and the following officers will be installed for the ensuing year: President, S. A. Davis; first vice-president, D. W. Henke; second vice-president, Harold L. Adams; third vice-president, W. S. May; fourth vice-president, Victor H. Kester; secretary, John Lyons; treasurer, J. G. Pixley; chaplain, C. E. Peck.

MOTION PICTURES OF NEW MEXICO'S DEVELOPMENT

Motion pictures for which the number of actors will run high into the hundreds will be a portion of the historical exhibit of New Mexico at the San Diego exposition in 1915. The photo-play they make up will be presented each day of the year in the state building. It tells the story of New Mexico's development from the early days of the Indian through the Spanish occupation by Coronado in 1540, the cession to the United States and the development since statehood was acquired.

Different scenes in the photo-play are being acted by the people of the different communities, in Spanish, Indian and early American costume as the picture requires.

NO CLEAN-UP WEEK

How unresponsive to the spirit of the times it is possible for a community to be illustrated by Indianapolis, which, according to the latest reports, is not to have a "clean-up week." Not to have a clean-up week is worse, if anything, than not to have a "slogan" or a plan for a civic center. But the Indianapolis board of public works takes the position that the city is cleaning the streets and alleys all the time, and that a special week for that purpose is unnecessary. If citizens have any complaints about the work as at present conducted, they are invited to state them. This line of reasoning may sound well, but it overlooks the main point. What is the purpose of a clean-up week? To clean up? Of course not. The purpose of this institution is to arouse the spirit of co-operation among the citizens, to get them off the beaten track for a few days, to set everybody doing something that he is unused to doing. Clean-up week, in a word, has the same end as reading poetry or listening to a Chautauqua speaker. It makes one feel that one is a part of the great uplift of humanity now everywhere staged, and at the same time it is a novel form of recreation. —The Nation.

DON'T WORRY

Employees of the Illinois Central railroad have been advised in a statement issued by the management of the company to avoid worry. Laughter and lightheartedness are prescribed as antidotes.

"Live complacently," says the statement. "Cultivate the art of living with yourself as you are and the world as it is. This nation once had a strenuous president who always explained his good health in the face of hard work by saying, 'I like my job!' Contentment with your daily lot, satisfaction with one's regular employment is a great aid to dispelling worry.

"Of the mental causes, worry is the worst. Learn to be a master of your moods. Do not permit yourself to drift along like a helpless, rudderless bark tossed to and fro by every sensation of pain and every wind of mental distress."

This sound advice is good not only for railroad men, but for those of all occupations. It is good for the employee as well as the employer. Worry brings wrinkles and gray hair and shortens life. The man who has a light heart adds balm to his days. He sees light where others grope in darkness. Men and women are better than they ever were. The world, too, is better and life sweeter to those who laugh.

STERNBERG WANTS MORE WATER

The Casa Verdugo correspondent to the Los Angeles Times on Tuesday morning writes this:

"Casa Verdugo folks absolutely refuse to take their baths in a tin cupful of water. R. C. Sternberg, who stands six feet one inch, ready for his bath, insisted to a crowd of his neighbors tonight that a cupful isn't half enough for him and that he hopes the time will come when he can go to his bathroom and feel sure that he can enjoy a real plunge.

"The situation resulting from a scarcity of water has become so serious that the residents of the Villa tract and the Co-operative tract of Casa Verdugo sent a protest to Railroad Commissioner Clark which brought him here post haste from San Francisco the other day to investigate the situation.

The people say that they have never had sufficient water and that now when it does come on that every possible utensil of the house is brought into service to catch water, for they never can tell when they'll be able to get any more.

N. C. Kelley was the original subdivider of these tracts. When he opened up the Villa tract of some twenty-five acres he contracted to furnish water from a private water system of his. Later, when he put on the Co-operative subdivision, he is said to have promised to let them have water also.

"The people claim that there was only water sufficient for the first tract and that he should have never agreed to furnish water to an additional subdivision from the same water system.

"One little woman said there was a time that everybody 'cussed' Kelley when the water wouldn't come on, but later they were so thankful to have it come on at 'any old time' that they felt like thanking Mr. Kelley when it did.

"Kelley says he is doing the best he can."

Dear friends, join Glendale and with her build up one of the strongest municipal water plants in Southern California.

WORK ON HIGHWAYS

Under direction of the automobile clubs, work on the highways connecting San Diego with important points to the North is being taken up actively and the roads will be in good condition by the time the exposition opens. A heavy volume of motor tours is assured for 1915, with several thousand inquiries from eastern automobilists already in. Work on the coast highway in Monterey county alone involves $825,000.

Announcement is made by the Salt Lake railway that 4000 German tourists will be booked to Southern California during the San Diego exposition year. They are divided into twenty groups, each accompanied by a guide.

It might be well enough to say, however, apropos of some recent statistics, that cities paying the higher scale of salaries to their mayors do not always have the costliest ones.

When the tourists who are following Washington's route to Cambridge arrive at the famous elm, why not go ahead and re-enact all that the original tourist subsequently did?

It was officially stated that the Glendale and Montrose cars carried over five thousand people to Verdugo Park during the day of the Fourth. There was patriotic speaking, dancing and other amusements at the park throughout the day and evening.

LOCAL REALTY COMPANY HANDLES GOOD TRADE

Deardurff, Eshom & Ward, real estate brokers and agents for the Nuevo Ranch Irrigated Farms, successfully completed a deal Monday by which J. B. Dubel traded a fine residence at Piedmont Park for 20 acres of San Jacinto land belonging to J. F. Stanford, residing on Central avenue, Glendale. The amount involved was about $15,000.

Since locating in Glendale at 409 Brand boulevard about two months ago, the Deardurff, Eshom & Ward Realty Company has had a good share of the local real estate business, and they have sold over 300 acres of their Nuevo ranch property. Some record for sixty days.

Talking About Bargains

I never use the word "bargain" unless, deep down in my heart, I really believe the property is considerably underpriced. Measured by this standard, there are few real bargains, even in these rather quiet times. People don't have to sacrifice their properties very often.

I have a down-right bargain!

It consists of an entire city block in West Glendale, bounded by four streets.

There are 24 good lots in the block.

Lots in this vicinity have sold at from $500 to $600.

I can sell you this bunch of lots at less than $200 apiece. If you don't want lots, fence in the block and you have between four and five acres of as pretty land as the valley affords.

Ideal for a fruit ranch, for poultry, for a close-in suburban home. Adjoining land will cost you double as much.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF INSTRUCTION

For its eighty-third annual session the American Institute of Instruction is meeting in Cambridge and is enjoying the hospitality of Greater Boston's educators. Usually assembling at some outlying resort made attractive by nature, the institute has come this year into an urban district and found welcome within the halls of Harvard University. It will be well to note the effect of the more suitable environment, one sure to provoke thought respecting the theories and methods of efficient education as such as would be stirred by no mountain retreat or ocean shore. For Cambridge is a manufacturing center and tenement house district as well as a university city, and the home of past and present shapers of national culture. Two thousand delegates cannot walk her streets without being aware of the reasons for prevocational and continuation schools as well as for schools of law and engineering. The colonial and revolutionary epochs of national history are not without their witnesses in the city; but equally in evidence are all the conditions of contemporary civilization which it is the duty of the educator and scholar to modify or to suppress.

This being the case, the institute can count itself fortunate in its temporary abiding place. Speakers of eminence on the program may or may not live up to their opportunities. But whether they do or not, the Cambridge environment will no doubt have its influence. The program, wisely we think, has been made not too technical. A place of honor has been given to the cause of peace and arbitration, as of universal interest. This seems to show strategy by officials of the pacifist cause. With schools and colleges committed to steady enlightenment of youth on costly aspects of war and its illusory gains, the cause of arbitral or judicial settlement of international disputes will surely advance.

Philadelphia proposes to substitute oratory for fireworks on all Fourth of July, and the whole country will be interested in noticing whether the change is for the better.

ROMANCE AND REALITY

"Keep Cool Electrically"

—if your husband had to do the work your home would have a Vacuum Cleaner.

YOUR husband would not put up with housecleaning drudgery. He would not spend the time. He would not be satisfied with the results of ordinary cleaning methods. He would not tolerate the destruction of household furnishings from dirt and the make-shift methods used to remove it. He would not pay for having the same thing done over and over in an unsanitary way and never having the home really clean.

If your husband had to do the work he would quickly look for the best mechanical device to do it, some labor-saving system, swift, efficient, harmless, sanitary, economical. And he would order our Vacuum Cleaner.
